

General colour scheme:
white, blue, orange and black.
This general colour scheme will make the site simple to read and will mean that people with visual impairments should not struggle to discern the various aspects of the webpage, with orange being used to highlight important areas such as headings of important sections of the site

